RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF NON-RESPONSIVE AMENDMENT

COMMISSIONER FOR PATENTS
ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA 22313

SIR:

On March 24, 2006, the Office provided Applicants with a communication in which the Examiner has indicated that the response filed on December 12, 2005, is not fully responsive. The apparent basis for this indication can be found in the assertion that the "amendment to the claims changes the claims from composition claims to method claims."

The Examiner is correct in that Claim 7 was changed from a composition claim to a method claim. However, Applicants disagree with the holding that the response filed on December 12, 2005, is non-responsive as a result of this amendment. Specifically, Applicants wish to direct the Examiner's attention to the fact that that method claims (i.e., Claims 27 and 28) were presented on May 20, 2005, and were subsequently examined and rejected in the Office Action mailed August 10, 2005. The amendment of Claim 7 on December 12, 2005, merely incorporated the limitations of Claim 27 (which depended from Claim 7) and, therefore, corresponds to previously examined subject matter. Similarly, it should be noted that method Claim 28 (which depended from Claim 7) was amended to incorporate the limitations of Claim 7. Therefore, method Claim 28 was previously presented and examined. As such, the response filed on December 12, 2005, was proper.

In view of the foregoing, Applicants' undersigned Representative contacted Examiner Fubara to discuss this application for which Applicants wish to thank the Examiner for the courteous discussion. During this discussion, Applicants' Representative explained the foregoing. In response, the Examiner invited Applicants to provide the foregoing explanation for favorable reconsideration.

Applicants submit that the present application is now in condition for allowance. Early notice to this effect is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

OBLON, SPIVAK, McCLELLAND,
